Inspired by Dries Van Noten

Concept Statement: Inspired by my childhood beach, Bronte, and initiated by my move to Amsterdam, The collection, "Colouring Nostalgia" explores how returning to a place that once felt like home can evoke nostalgia, belonging, and identity. The collection captures the emotional journey of revisiting places filled with memories, while highlighting the vacation-like joy and idealized perspective that often accompanies our experience.

This collection invites wearers to reflect on their own memories, identity and the dreamlike sensation of escaping into the comfort of their past, as if "holidaying" in their own story.
